

Are You Eligible for PA ABLE?

The Pennsylvania Treasury Department is proud to offer the PA ABLE Savings Program (PA ABLE) —a savings plan for people with disabilities.

PA ABLE allows people with disabilities to save money while maintaining their benefits. The program also allows friends and family to contribute to the account, and offers a checking account option that can be used for everyday expenses such as rent, gas, transportation and groceries.

How do you find out if you're eligible for this unique savings opportunity?

People with disabilities can determine their eligibility for the program by answering a few short questions.

1. Someone may be eligible if they have a qualifying disability demonstrated by:
 - a. Entitlement to Supplemental Security Income ("SSI") or Social Security Disability Insurance ("SSDI") as a result of his/her disability or blindness.

OR

- b. Self-certification of a similarly severe disability demonstrated by blindness or having a medically determinable physical or mental impairment with marked and severe function limitation that has lasted, or is expected to last, at least 12 continuous months or result in death, supported by a written diagnosis signed by a physician.

AND

2. The qualifying disability must have started prior to age 26.
