

Operations Communiqué #10-06 The Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) for Tax Year 2010 and Ordering IRS Publications

Title: The Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) for Tax Year 2010 and Ordering IRS Publications

Date: November 30, 2010

Priority: Medium

Category: Informational

Action Required: Yes. See "Next Steps".

Response Required: None

Purpose:

To remind the Child Care Information Services (CCISs) to share information on the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) with families participating in the subsidized child care program and to issue the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Form 2333TE "SPEC Outreach Order Form" for 2010.

Discussion:

The EITC is a credit that helps working families with low to moderate incomes keep more of what they work for. It helps to reduce taxes and, in some instances, may mean a refund. For tax year 2010, a family with one qualifying child can have an adjusted gross income of $35,535 and still be eligible; a family with two or more qualifying children can have adjusted gross income of $40,633 and be eligible.

CCISs should inform families participating in the subsidized child care program about the availability of this tax credit. The IRS has several publications that contain helpful information on the EITC. Publications for 2010 are now available and may be ordered at no cost to the CCIS.

Attached to this communiqué is the IRS Order Form SPEC 2333TE "SPEC Outreach Order Form" for 2010. CCISs should use this form to order EITC and other publications for this tax year by completing it, printing it and then sending it to Mr. George C. McGriff. It would be extremely helpful for CCIS offices to return the completed order form electronically to Mr. George C. McGriff. If you are not able to submit the form electronically, fax the form to George C. McGriff's attention.
